

Abstract

Darwish Abdelaziz Mohamed

Performance of Bayliss-Turkel type radiation conditions applied on a conformal outer boundary

An efficient PDE solution of the Helmholtz equation in open regions such as encountered in antenna and scattering entails the use of radiation conditions on a terminating boundary.