

Abstract

Darwish Abdelaziz Mohamed

Ambiguity function and related studies for ultra wide band Radar

Recent development in high power sources and ultra fast switches made it possible to develop ultra wideband radar which have potential applications insurface and folage penetration. This paper presents different ultra wideband waveforms. The generations of the waveforms are based on Fourier series expansion of the desired waveforms.