

Abstract

Darwish Abdelaziz Mohamed

Two New Techniques for Direction of Arrival Estimation

Direction of arrival estimation (DOA) is one of the most demanding problems which one has to solve for localizing and tracking multiple rapidly moving targets as in radar, mobile communication and in other areas. In this paper, two new techniques for DOA estimation of signals impinging on the array are proposed.