

Abstract

Wael M. Dwedar

LEADERSHIP MANAGEMENT MODEL

The main focus of the paper is about highlighting the leadership features, about the importance of work cooperation with members of the team players. We are in a serious need of a leader, who are aware of the dimensions of the world crisis, have an innovative solution for this crisis. Leadership is the backbone of any organization. No one denies the vital important role played by the leader during the organization's journey so that if the employees lose this vital important role played by the leader, the organization in charge will face a confounding position, The author in this paper introduces the leadership model of the Arab Academy for Science, Technology, Maritime Transport, discuss the Academy's journey with the founder leader since March 1970.