Team work

- I am an active member in the social charity club (LEO). This meant that I had to work with the other prefects to ensure the smooth running of many events, raising funds for various charity causes, as well as motivating my team to participate and succeed in these events.
- I was a former member of the Sporting Handball team (1996-2005). An active member of the handball community and know what it takes to make a successful team on the sporting field.

Time management

- Tight deadlines with college work means that I have had to manage my time to make sure that I get all my work done.
- In my final year of school, I had a lot of extra curricular activities to balance with my school work as being an AIESEC member, which taught me to prioritise.

Achievement

- I was the youngest Egyptian delegate in the Middle East when I was selected to write the story of my life in the international competition "Hotmommas".
- I was the director for project (Ana Mawhoob) by LEO Alexandria that was awarded the best project in the Middle East.

Focused and willing to learn

- I have a very clear career goal to focus on and work towards.
- I am very willing to learn from my workmates and to use that knowledge to get a better understanding of the market.
- I have experience of marketing through: college projects, summer training and charity work, so I know that it is where I want to be.

Reliable

- Excellent attendance record at school over four years.
- Always on time and ready to work.
